

FIRST CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.

Section 1. That section 47 of article IV be amended by adding thereto the following words, to-wit: And provided, that this section shall not be construed as prohibiting the general assembly from providing by law in cities having over 100,000 inhabitants for a system of compensation to members of the police force in such cities who become disabled in the police service by casualty, disease, or age from rendering full service for their respective positions, and for giving such disabled members of the police force such disability, and that policemen so pensioned shall be required as a condition thereof to be members of a reserve force, and to render such emergency service therein when required as their respective disabilities may permit. The fund for such purposes to be appropriated by the municipal government of such cities.

To empower school boards in certain cities to provide a pension fund for the Section 1. That section 47 of article 1 of the Constitution be amended by adding thereto the following words: "and shall not be construed as to prohibit the general assembly from authorizing by law, school boards or boards of education in this state, to contribute to the maintenance of any institution a population of one hundred thousand or more, to create, maintain and manage a fund out of the school moneys under their control, to provide for the education of teachers who have become mentally or physically incapacitated for further service; and provided further that no part of the said pension fund shall be paid out of the general revenue of the state apportioned to the counties or cities for school purposes, but must be paid out of the district fund of the district seeking enforcement of the district seeking enforcement relating to teachers' pensions."

To authorize a state levy for a permanent fund for public roads.

Section 27. A state tax of five cents on the one hundred dollars assessed valuation shall be levied and collected on all objects and subjects of taxation. The money derived from said levy shall be apportioned in the several counties of the state in such manner as may be provided for by law as a permanent fund for public roads and highways.

To amend the manner of amending the charter of the city of St. Louis.

Section 1 of Chapter 1-2 was amended. The charter so ratified may be amended by proposals therefor submitted to the lawmaking authorities of the city to be submitted to the qualified voters thereof at a general or special election held at least sixty days after the publication of such proposals, and accepted by the qualified voters of the city for or against each such amendment so submitted; and the lawmaking authorities of such city may also order an election by the qualified voters of the city of a majority of thirteen freeholders of such city to prepare a new charter for such city, which said charter shall be in harmony with and subject to the Constitution and laws of the state, and provide among other things for a chief executive and at least one house of legislation to be elected by general vote of the qualified voters of the city, shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the city of St. Louis at an election to be held not less than twenty nor more than thirty days after the order of the city council making such election, and if a majority of the qualified voters voting at such election ratify such charter, then said charter shall become the organic law of the city and sixty days thereafter shall in fact and in name be the charter of the city, and all laws and all specifications inconsistent therewith, And in submitting such charter or amendments thereto to the qualified voters of the city of St. Louis, any such charter or amendments may be presented for the choice of the voters and may be voted on separately and accepted or rejected separately.

To provide for the erection and equipment of a new state capital without in-

Sec. 2 The general assembly, in following the adoption of this amendment, shall authorize and provide for the issuance of bonds in the sum of one million dollars in amount, to bear interest at a rate not exceeding three per cent a year payable in thirty years (from date of issuance, but redeemable at any time), and to equip and equip a new state capital at the present seat of government. Said general assembly shall provide, by appropriate legislation, for the creation of a public debt commission, by transferring the amendment into effect.

Sec. 2 The general assembly, at its regular session thereof, after the adoption of this amendment, shall authorize and provide for the issuance and revenue of the state sufficient to pay the interest, life cost on said bonds and the any other principal such sum as it shall deem fit to pay, and shall also provide for the redemption or payment of said bonds.

To empower certain counties to raise

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring therein:

Section 12. No county, city, or township, school district, or other political corporation or subdivision of the state shall be allowed to become indebted in any manner or for any purpose to an amount exceeding in any year the income and revenue provided for such year, nor shall any person or persons be allowed to vote for or in any election for or in that purpose, nor in cases requiring such assent shall any indebtedness be allowed to be incurred to an amount exceeding five per centum of the aggregate taxable property then in the county, city or township, as the case may be, to be ascertained by the assessment made before the last assessment for state purposes, and no person or persons shall be allowed to vote for or in the election of such indebtedness: Provided, that no such assent any county may be allowed to become indebted to a larger amount for the erection of a courthouse, for the improvement or for building, constructing, paying or maintaining of paved, graveled, macadamized or rock roads, necessary bridges and culverts thereon, and, provided further, that no county, city, township or school district or other political corporation or subdivision of the state incurring indebtedness requiring the assent of the voters as aforesaid, shall, before or at the time of its incurring such indebtedness, be allowed to, or provided for, or authorized to, or be obligated to pay the interest on a indebtedness as it falls due, and also constitute a sinking fund for the payment of the principal thereof, within two years from the date of its contracting the same: Provided further, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to counties having cities that have populations which may hereafter have one hundred thousand or more inhabitants, nor to cities that now have or may hereafter have three hundred thousand inhabitants.

To increase the per diem compensation

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring therein:

may receive "ten" dollar per day for one hundred and twenty days, and of one dollar per day for the remainder of such sessions. In addition to per diem, members shall be entitled to mileage for traveling expenses or mileage; for an regular and extra session not greater than now provided by law, but no member shall be entitled to reimbursement of expenses or mileage for any extra session that may be called within one day after the adjournment of a regular session. Committees of either house, or joint committees of both houses, appointed to examine the institutions of the state, other than those at the seat of government, may receive their actual expenses, necessarily incurred while in the performance of their duty. All claims for expenses to be returned to the chairman of such committee, and by him certified to the state auditor, before the same, or any part thereof, can be paid, shall be presented at any regular session an additional sum of thirty dollars, which shall be in full for stationery used in his official capacity and all postage, and the clerk shall be entitled to per diem, but there shall be no allowance or emoluments, for any purpose whatever, shall be made to or received by the members, or any member thereof, out of the contingent fund, or otherwise, except as herein provided, or no allowance, emolument, for any purpose whatever, shall be paid to any officer, except

To provide for the use of voting ma

It is resolved by the Senate, the House of Representatives concurring therein, as follows:

day in November, 1910, the following amendment to the Constitution of the state of Missouri, relating to elections, shall be submitted for adoption to the voters of said state: To-wit: That section 3, article VIII of the Constitution of the state of Missouri be amended by inserting the words "and in line 1, after the word 'and' between the words 'ballot' and 'every' in line 1 of said section 3, and the words 'in which paper ballots have been used' between the words 'elections' and 'in which paper ballots have been used' by adding to said section 3 the words 'nothing in this section however shall be construed to prevent the use of any such safeguards and regulations as may be prescribed by law for the purpose of receiving and registering the votes cast at any election, provided the secrecy in voting be preserved' so that said section 3 shall read as follows:

To increase the limit of tax rate for

Be it resolved by the Senate, the House concurring therein:

wit: That section 11 of article 19 of the Constitution of the state of Missouri be amended by striking out the word "sixty"; in line seventeen of said section and inserting in lieu thereof the words "one hundred" and by striking out the word "fifty" in line nineteen of said section and inserting in lieu thereof the word "thirty;" so that said section when amended shall read as follows:

setting public buildings. Taxes for county, city, town and school purposes million dollars, said rate shall not exceed forty cents on the hundred dollars valuation; in counties having ten million dollars and under thirty million dollars, said rate shall not exceed fifty cents on the hundred dollars valuation; and in counties having thirty million dollars or more, said rate shall not exceed thirty cents on the hundred dollars valuation. For city and town purposes the annual rate on property in cities and towns serving thirty thousand inhabitants or more shall not be in the aggregate, except

TENTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMEND-

Providing for the prohibition of both the manufacture and the sale of intoxicating liquors in the state of Missouri save and except that intoxicating liquors may be manufactured in the state and sold in the state for medical, scientific and mechanical purposes, and providing further that wine may be manufactured in the state and sold in the state for sacramental or religious purposes.

Proposed amendment to the Constitution of Missouri, to be submitted to the legal voters of the state of Missouri for their approval or rejection at the regular general election to be held on the eighth day of November, A. D. 1919, and are

Section 1. Prohibition.—The manufac-

ELEVENTH CONSTITUTIONAL

Provided, for the support and maintenance of the University of the State of Missouri, including the college of agriculture and the school of mines, by levying three cents on each one hundred dollars assessed valuation, the proceeds of which are to go into the state treasury and to be paid out as may be provided by law provided that if the state tax on property is discontinued such revenue for maintenance shall be secured by apportionment to the counties of the state and to the city of St. Louis.

tion of Missouri to be submitted to the legal voters of the state of Missouri for their approval or rejection at the regular general election to be held on the Tuesday next following the first Monday in November, A. D. 1910, providing for revenue for the support of the University of Missouri, by adding to article X of the Constitution one new section to be known as section twenty-eight (28), which is in words and figures as follows:

Section 25. A state tax of three per the assessed value of all property subject by law to taxation in this state. The proceeds of said tax shall be set apart to the state treasury and applied to the support and maintenance of the university of the state of Missouri, including the college of agriculture and the school mines, and shall be paid out in accordance with regulations of the board of trustees.

COUNTY OF LAFAYETTE

and of the constitutional ballots containing all constitutional amendments including the nine joint and concurrent resolutions of the Forty-fifth General Assembly of the state of Missouri) of proposed amendments of the constitution of the State of Missouri and the amendments to the constitution proposed by Initiative petitions, state and voted on by the qualified voters of the State of Missouri at the general election to be held on Tuesday, the Eleventh day of November, 1900.

amendments and the full text of amendments thereunder; also a true and complete form of ballots lists containing the names of each of the State of Missouri, and also entitled in my office to be submitted to voted for by qualified voters of the State of Missouri at said general election together with a designation of the

C. L. GLASSCOCK,
Clerk of the County of

BY F. L. CARTER,
Dep

President Taft Senator A

pride" to the free list, under the present tariff act, and assure the people of the country, that the tariff law is one of the

upon examination of the list, just how "thoughtful" the government guardians have been, of the interests of this free list about which have so much heard, such a cles as ashes, zaffer, pulu, tax, turtles, bones, acorns, b

* gas-sticks, junk, bladders and * blood, Brazilian pebbles, be * hair, lemon juice, oakum, c * etc., and just as if they were running over, they didn't stop these blessings, but addedmonds and steam yachts to free list. We should all take sent for these and other